The Value of Accreditation

by Pastor Jared Page

Recently, I had the opportunity and privilege to sit on the accreditation team at Lake Region Christian School in Baxter, MN. Former FBCS Administrator and current MACS Executive Director Alan Hodak was chairing the team and asked me, along with three other Minnesota educators to be a part of his team. For three days, we worked through the accreditation process with LRCS. They were long days with a lot of work, but it was a really good process, and Lake Region did a great job. This was their third time through the process and I'm confident that they will have their accreditation extended for another five years. They are an outstanding school, and I learned a lot from them.

As I worked through this process at LRCS, I was reminded again of the value of accreditation. Our accrediting agency is the American Association of Christian Schools (AACS). AACS themselves had to go through an arduous process a number of years ago in order to be a certified accreditor in the state of Minnesota. Accreditation at its root is a self-study.

Each school seeking accreditation evaluates itself according to a number of standards set forward by the accrediting agency. These cover the entirety of the school program: academics, extra-curriculars, finances and the physical safety of the property, to name a few. This forces the school to look at every area of what we do in detail. As the time for the accreditation visit draws near, the school submits their report and accompanying documentation for the visiting team to assess. Visiting teams are normally made up of fellow educators and are led by an experienced administrator, or someone from the AACS home office.

The role of the visiting team isn't to sit in judgment over the choices that the school makes. It is to assess whether the school being accredited actually does what they say they do, and operates

Our Mission

Fourth Baptist Christian School, as a ministry of Fourth Baptist Church, is committed to the development of a student's spiritual life in Jesus Christ, while pursuing academic excellence in a manner which honors and glorifies God, based on the only infallible Word, the Bible.

according to its own philosophy and mission. The team's role is verification. They study the report presented by the school and seek to verify its contents. They pour over various documents, observe classroom instruction, conduct interviews with various constituents and examine the physical property of the school.

At the end of the process, the team presents a report evaluating all that the school has set forth. They can make commendations, recommendations, suggestions and observations, or point out areas where the school must improve or change in order obtain or maintain accreditation. What emerges from the process is a school improvement plan (SIP), which the school being accredited can take and work on over the next term of their accreditation. This is a helpful guide for each school to better itself. Accreditation provides an accountability structure which serves to give its constituents confidence in what the school is doing. It is a lot of work, but it is a fruitful and necessary work, which helps ensure that the school is fulfilling its mission and leading its students well.

Fourth Baptist Christian School has gone through three rounds of accreditation, with the last round being completed three years ago. In each case, FBCS has received high marks and been commended in many ways. After our last accreditation visit, we received Accreditation with Merit, which is the highest honor that can be bestowed through AACSB accreditation. (You may have heard us say that we are "Accredited with Distinction" previously, but "Accreditation with Merit" is the new terminology AACSB uses.) It also allows us to go seven years between visits, which is really nice! This honor means that FBCS not only met but exceeded the standards for accreditation in a number of areas. We aren't perfect of course, and we continue to work through our school improvement plan to better ourselves. Accreditation is a hard, but valuable process, and we trust that by God's grace, it will help us continue to grow in our mission of partnering with families for excellent Christian Education. ■

Getting to Know Our Teachers: Mrs. Diane Davis, 2nd Grade

Here's a Q&A style interview with long-time elementary teacher, Mrs. Diane Davis, to get to know her better!

She has 35 years teaching experience. Mrs. Davis been at Fourth for 25 years, first as a librarian, then as a second grade teacher.

Q: When did you personally trust Christ as your Savior?

A: I was five years old. During family devotions, my dad was reading to me about my sinful heart, and I realized my heart was sinful and I needed to ask Jesus to forgive me.

Q: What is your favorite Bible Verse?

A: I Peter 3:15, "But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts, and always be ready to give a defense to everyone who asks you a reason for the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear;"

Q: How and where did you meet your husband, Steve, and how long have you been married?

A: We met on a blind date to the Central Seminary Banquet, and we have been married for 38 1/2 years

Q: How many children and grandchildren do you have?

A: We have a son (Ben) and daughter-in-law (Tatiana), and four grandchildren

Q: What led you into teaching?

A: During college, I started down another avenue but the Lord only gave me peace when I switched to elementary education.

Q: What is your greatest joy as a teacher?

A: Seeing my students grow and become more like Christ: obedient, loving and kind. I also enjoy seeing them begin to love learning and school. It is especially neat to see when all of a sudden their face lights up because they understand a new fact being taught.

Q: What would you say is your biggest challenge as a teacher?

A: The lack of obedience and respect some children show.

Q: What is your favorite subject to teach 2nd graders?

A: I love math, I, also enjoy watching them become proficient in phonics, reading and see their excitement in science and history.

Q: What do you like to do on an unexpected day off? (for example, a snow day) Begin the day slowly and relax and catch my breath!

A: Q: If you weren't a teacher, what would you be?

A: Wife, mother and grandmother

Q: Your students might be surprised to find out that you ...

A: Grew up on a farm—I tell lots of stories about those days. However, I learned to drive by driving the tractor during hay season.

Q: What are your hobbies and interests?

A: Playing piano, reading, doing puzzles, crocheting, and spending time with family

Q: Do you play a musical instrument?

A: In high school, I played flute, piccolo, accordion and piano. In college, I played organ and piano. Today, I mostly play piano.

Q: Let me quickly ask some your preferences ...

Ocean or Mountains? Both! They both hold special appeal

Coffee or Tea? Tea

Favorite Animal? Dog

Favorite season? Fall

Favorite song? The Bible Stands

Favorite color? Shades of light & dark pink, lavender & blue

Favorite sport to watch? Basketball To play? Basketball, I played six-girl team basketball on a H.S. team in Iowa

Q: Talking about travel, what is your favorite vacation spot?

A: My favorite vacation spots are the Great Lakes and the Rocky Mountains. My favorite vacation itself was a cruise in the Baltic Sea.

Q: What would be your dream vacation?

A: Taking a cruise on the Rhine River in Europe where my relatives came from.

Q: Have you ever been outside the United States?

A: Yes, Canada, Russia, Sweden, Denmark and Estonia

Q: What is something on your "bucket list" that you really want to do/accomplish?

A: Cruise on the Rhine River

Q: What's your favorite book and why should we read it?

A: The Bible is the book I try to spend time in each day, and it is the most important book in our lives. I do enjoy reading Christian fiction for relaxation.

Q: If you wrote a memoir, what would you title it?

A: Laying Up Your Treasures in Heaven

Q: What is an insightful quote that has stuck with you?

A: Practice the Pause When in doubt - pause, When angry - pause, When tired - pause, When stressed - pause, and when you pause, pray!

Q: What words of encouragement do you have for our parents?

A: Never give up on your child!

Q: What words of encouragement do you have for our students?

A: Always strive to do your best and live for the Lord. You have one life and what you have done for Christ will last.

Q: What has been one of the biggest blessings from one of your students?

A: A couple years ago when I got a thank you note from one of my past 2nd graders who had just graduated from H.S. I hadn't seen him since 2nd grade. Telling me it was because of going through the salvation plan in 2nd grade that he had gotten saved and was now serving in their church sharing the gospel. I remember well the day he was saved - after he finished praying and saying Amen he gave a huge sigh of relief. He had been one of my naughtier students!

Q: Do you have a final comment to share with us?

A: When I was little I always wanted to a station wagon full of children - the Lord gave me only one child but instead he has given me bus loads of students!

Thank you, Mrs. Davis! ~ Interviewer: Mrs. Alison French

Spirit Week 2026

Each year, Spirit week is a highlight for our FBCS family. We divide our student body up into teams, led by our seniors. They participate in daily dress-up competitions, games, activities and work together to support our Warrior teams. This year, as always, we had 8 teams which competed throughout the week. Senior guys from each team lead a brief devotional each morning, explaining the meaning of their team name and verse. The week culminates with Warrior Spirit day and a pep rally where the teams present their team verse, and their team cheer. Our basketball teams are introduced and the kids are encouraged to come out to the games that night. The Pep rally also includes our annual all school game of "Ships and Sailors" which is a highlight.

Spirit week was scheduled this year for January 20 – 23. After three great days of fun, we were thrown a curveball as we had to cancel school on Friday the 23rd due to inclement weather. So it was "Spirit week in our hearts" for three more weeks, as we postponed the final day of Spirit week until Friday, February 13. We finally were able to conclude our Spirit week that day as we reconstituted our teams for one final day. When it was all said and done, Team 8, the Echo, led by Lily Williams and Aaron Huang won the week! A good time was had by all and we built some school spirit and friendship along the way.

~ Pastor Jared Page

"Back by Popular Demand"— Alumni Homecoming 2026

We were pleased to have around 30 Alumni come back to campus for Homecoming Night on February 13th. The event coincided with our final night of Spirit Week and senior night, having been rescheduled due to inclement weather a couple of weeks prior. It was a full night, but exciting to have our bleachers packed! Alumni and their families were treated to a pizza and salad dinner in Fellowship Hall, which Mrs. Fure and her team decorated with photo banners from previous decades, yearbooks, trophies and a slideshow of FBSC memories. Alumni received an FBSC stainless steel water bottle, free concessions coupon, and prize giveaway drawings throughout the evening. Thank you, Alumni, for coming! It was great to have you back!

We asked our Alumni for their favorite memories from their time at Fourth, and here are just a few of their answers:

Mr. Monroe frolicking. ~ Caleb Page 2020

Senior trip when Pastor Jeremy drove off with the gas pump still in the bus. Being in Mrs. Leith's class. Mrs. Fure being the best.
~ Tony Eppers 2025

Winning the 3-peat volleyball MACS Tourney and being able to experience that with my mom. ~ Jayden Schultz 2016

When a drawing of a spoon in Miss Anderson's class got us detention.
~ Micah Weckert & Josh Van Luyk 2020

JH MACS Fine Arts Festival

Our Junior High students rose to the occasion at this year's MACS Fine Arts Festival hosted at First Baptist in Rosemount on March 3. Students participated in several categories including vocal solos, small and large vocal groups, choir, woodwind and string solos, band ensembles, band, piano solos, speech, reader's theater, and art. Several especially enjoyed Neshe Blazosky's humorous speech taking a philosophical approach to the three little pigs' defense against the big bad wolf. Chloe Johnson and Lexi LaVasseur earned perfect scores on their vocal solos.

While achieving excellent and superior ratings are an exciting result, the character built in honing skills for God's glory yielded a greater reward. As Rachel Trach, an FBCS parent said: "I think most of the students walked away from today thinking, 'That was a really fun day!' But they don't realize how many invaluable life skills they are accumulating. Things like how to have poise when you feel nervous, how to introduce yourself in front of a crowd, how to work hard to achieve a goal, and how to cheer for and encourage others who have worked hard."

We were grateful for the support of many family members who followed our students throughout the day. Special thanks also to Miss Julie Kovacik for preparing our speech students. Thank you to Mrs. Ruth Peal for aiding the music department in vocal group preparation as well. We look forward to building more skills next year.

Warrior Varsity Girls & Boys Basketball Season Wrap-ups

Varsity Girls Team Captains:

Lauren Stephens, Claire Vikander

MCAC All-Conference 2nd Team:

Lauren Stephens

This year was a re-building year for the FBSC Ladies Warrior Basketball program. We started three sophomores and two freshman for the majority of the year and saw immense improvement in both skill and knowledge of the game of basketball throughout the season. We had two seniors who helped us improve and most importantly have subs for each game. We also had the best two managers in the world who helped cheer and encourage us during the season. Thank you Tava and Anja!

Many fun memories were made through the season and on bus trips, and we look forward to the next few years of improvement and growth for the program as these girls become upperclassmen. Thank you to all the parents and fans that came out to support us in our games and tournaments. ~ Coach Jeremy Stephens

Faith All-Tournament Team:

Grant Vikander, Lukyn Williams

This year's basketball team had four seniors, more than what we have had in many years. We were led by Grant Vikander and Josiah Combs as our captains. Because of that senior leadership, our expectations were high. We had many close games during the regular season. Losing by 3 points was our most common loss!!

We also had many great wins. We earned 2nd place at the invitational tournament at Faith Baptist Bible College. We also finished in 4th place for the regular season conference games. Unfortunately a couple of key injuries really set us back for the end of the year, and we finished in 6th place in the tournament. Of note, Grant Vikander finished with 995 points and would have passed the 1,000 point mark if he had not been injured during the end of the season. ~ Coach Jason Webster

MCAC Honors Coach Jason Webster

Every season, the coaches from the MCAC league vote for one coach who they feel exemplifies the qualities of a positive and successful coach while upholding the values of Christian Athletics through sportsmanship and a strong rapport with their team and other teams across the league.

The league recognized Coach Webster at the end of the MCAC Boys tournament and the FBCS Athletic Department awarded him the 2026 MCAC Boys Basketball Coach of the Year plaque at our recent Sports Award Night. We are grateful to Coach Webster for his faithfulness to follow Christ and his work with our athletes here at FBCS.

JV Boys Basketball Season Recap

The JV team had a rollercoaster season as we started the year 4-4 with some good wins and close losses. We then had an extended losing stretch through the middle of the season as we lost our next 7 games. But as the season started coming to a close, the team started coming together and was playing at our highest level toward the end of the season.

We ended the season with a close win to finish the year on a high note and an overall record of 5-11. There were promising moments and a fair share of frustrating ones. Overall, the kids kept a great attitude and worked hard in both practices and games.

Our JV Warrior Awards for the year were as follows:

The Most Improved Award went to Isaiah Caasi who consistently performed on both offense and defense for the year and was among the team leaders in nearly all stats.

The Offense Award went to Seth Hoffman who led the team in points per game and was our most efficient scorer.

As next year approaches, we have a many seniors and "minutes" departing from the varsity team. We will look forward to some of these JV players earning increased opportunities in varsity games. ~ Coach Joe Combs

JH Boys BB Team BLUE Recap

The Junior High Boys Basketball Team Blue completed the season with a 4–14 record, gaining valuable experience and showing consistent effort throughout the year. The team scored 521 total points and collected 471 rebounds, competing hard in every game and continuing to improve as the season progressed. Defensive energy was a highlight, with 142 steals recorded, reflecting active hands and growing awareness on that end of the floor.

The season presented valuable opportunities for learning and improvement, particularly in areas like ball control and free throw execution. Players embraced their roles, supported one another, and showed improvement in teamwork, effort, and understanding of the game. The progress made this season has helped build a strong foundation, setting the stage for continued development and future success.

~ Coach Brent Hanks

WARRIOR AWARDS:

Offensive Player of the Year—Alex Tkach
 Defensive Player of the Year—David Caasi
 Most Improved Player—Isaiah Trach

JH Boys BB Team WHITE Recap

The Junior High Boys Basketball Team White displayed perseverance and resiliency throughout the basketball season. The NSPSL league presented our team with many challenges as well as many opportunities to grow and improve. While we did not achieve much team success in terms of wins during the regular season, our players developed basketball skills both individually and as a team.

Our regular season record positioned us in the tier 2 tournament with a chance to win a few games at the end of the season. We won our first game in the tier 2 tournament in a convincing fashion but came up short in our second game. In our final game of the season, and third game of the tournament, we erased a second half deficit to force overtime where we pulled off a close victory!

We are especially grateful for the efforts of our 7th grade players, Roman Kachula, Nathan Loghinov and Colin McCulloch, as they were steadying influences on our team throughout the season. Additionally, we are super excited for the strong basketball talent of the 6th grade players on this team as they gained experience throughout the season. ~ Coach Erik Fredericksen

WARRIOR AWARDS:

Best Offensive Player—Parker Delich
 Best Defensive Player—Robinson Smith
 Warrior Award—Roland Eppers

JH Girls Basketball Recap

Coach Becky and I had the privilege of coaching the girls this season. As a team of 6th – 8th graders, we had some difference in skill and experience. Thank you to the 8th graders for being leaders on and off the court; thanks to the 6th graders for being adaptable; and the 7th graders for both being adaptable and being leaders.

During the games, the girls would cheer so loudly from the bench that sometimes the girls on the court couldn't hear us. That kind of energy and support makes a huge difference. One of my favorite things was seeing them before games seeing their little huddle and cheer and I just loved seeing them get excited with each other. Over the season, they became a stronger, more confident team, and it showed in their tournament run. We went in as the #7 seed and upset the #2 and #3 seeds to reach the championship game, where they played so well and finished in second place!

They really became a better team as the season went on. They supported each other, worked hard, and kept a positive attitude all season long. I want to encourage the girls to carry that with them into future teams.

And I want to thank the parents for driving the girls, cheering loudly, helping at games and encouraging them off the court. I'm really proud of all of you, and I'm grateful to be a part of this season. I already miss you a lot." ~ Coach Chloe Emslie

AACS Regional SH Speech & Bible Festival Winners

On Wednesday, March 11, sixteen students headed to Faith Baptist Bible College in Ankeny, Iowa, for the Regional speech competition. Our students competed in Reader's Theatre, Choric Speaking, and Dramatic Interpretation. The students did a great job! The reader's theatre (Megan, Lily, Anja, and Tava) earned first place; choric speaking (9th grade class) earned second place, and Lydia Raisanen earned second place in dramatic interpretation. Congratulations on a job well done! ~ Miss Julie Kovacik, English & Speech Teacher
